

A Treasure among the vines

I've discovered a real treasure amid the secrets of Alsace: Eguisheim. This pretty little town in the heart of the Alsatian vineyards is dazzling. Boasting exceptional wines and the Grand Crus of Eichberg and Pfersigberg, Eguisheim sparkles with individuality and hidden charm. Take your time while wandering through the Rue des Remparts. Its medieval past is everywhere, written into inscriptions on the beams of the half-timbered houses, etched into the details of facades. Doors open into delightful tithe courtyards bursting with history. Enchanting and unique, Eguisheim is splendid in the stunning colours of Alsace. The town also has a more spiritual side. In the half-light of the church I discovered the magnificent and rare opening statue of the Virgin, dating from the 14th century. Just a stork's flight away, I came across the chapel dedicated to Pope Leon IX, a native of Eguisheim. Step in, its contrasts are stunning! Eguisheim will captivate you, tantalise you and seduce you with her roundness... How not to love her?

Oliver Dan – Reporter

Our Discovery trail

The main themes of our town are illustrated. Follow the 9 stages of our trail...

- 5 The pigeon loft (start of trail)
- 1 The colours of Eguisheim
- 2 Round and round Eguisheim
- 3 The gates to the town
- 4 Our inscriptions
- 5 Stone engravings
- 6 The chateau
- 7 The Host of the Chapel
- 8 The Virgins of Eguisheim (the church)
- 9 The tithe courtyards

And to complete your visit...

Video introduction to the trail

On each plaque you'll find a QR code connecting you to videos accompanying your stroll.

But if you'd really like to get to know us better, our visitor's booklet is invaluable. What about your children? We entertain them with... a fun-filled booklet! On sale at the Tourist Office.

